SUNSET RESORTS ANNOUNCES HURRICANE POLICY

MONTEGO BAY, Jamaica (April 29, 2007) – Sunset Resorts in Jamaica, with its trio of all-inclusive resorts including Sunset Beach Resort & Spa in Montego Bay, Sunset Jamaica Grande Resort & Spa in Ocho Rios and Sunset at the Palms in Negril, announces its 2007 Hurricane Policy.

Sunset Resorts Hurricane Policy

If you are a guest at one of our resorts:

In the unlikely event that there is a Hurricane Warning in Jamaica (as defined by the U.S. National Weather Service) during your visit to Sunset Resorts and you opt to leave the resort, Sunset Resorts will either refund you for your unused portion of your stay, OR issue a credit for travel up to one year for the number of nights interrupted.

The replacement stay will be in an equivalent room category to the one originally booked. This offer is subject to change and may be withdrawn at any time without notice. The replacement trip must commence within one year of your original holiday and is exclusive of airfare. Dates will be subject to availability, and may also be subject to Sunset Resorts imposed blackout restrictions.

If you are planning to arrive at one of our resorts and there is a Hurricane Warning in Jamaica as defined by the U.S. National Weather Service which interrupts your arrival, Sunset Resorts offers you the following options:

Option #1: You may arrive after the storm passes for either the same number of nights, in which case, Sunset Resorts will make every effort to confirm the dates and room category, and guarantee no (hotel) rate increase - OR - stay for fewer nights, in which case you will be refunded for the interrupted nights not used. Airfare is not included.

Option #2: Sunset Resorts will issue a full credit for travel up to one year. We will guarantee the rate paid, regardless of the season you travel. The replacement trip must commence within one year of your original holiday and is exclusive of airfare. Dates will be subject to availability, and may also be subject to Sunset Resorts imposed blackout restrictions.
